

Jonigle said there had been problems with anti-social behaviour by young men in Lymington town centre and at Milford. Some of these young men, aged between 18 and 20, are considered prolific offenders so this opens up the range of

He added that lessons learned from last year's vandalism at Woodside Gardens in Pennington when youths went on a drunken rampage ripping up guttering, fencing and flower beds, and kicking doors in.

Lymington Harbour Commissioners

Appointment of Commissioners

Lymington Harbour Commissioners will shortly have vacancies for two Commissioners. Applications are invited from candidates with particular experience in the following areas:

- Financial management or accountancy and
- Commercial fishing in the UK fishing industry and/or Environmental matters affecting UK harbours

The new appointments will take effect from the 1st November 2010. The new Commissioners will probably live locally, have some knowledge of Lymington Harbour and be familiar with its surroundings.

Harbour Commissioners meet at least six times a year to determine the policy for the management and maintenance of the Harbour. Commissioners will, commensurate with their area of interest/expertise, be asked to serve on one of the Committees to advise on specific issues, i.e. finance, mooring, personnel etc. Commissioners are unpaid.

The new Commissioner will be selected on the basis of merit, aptitude and fitness for purpose in accordance with the general principles of public appointments.

Lymington Harbour is a Trust Port governed by a board of 10 Commissioners in the interests of all users and the local community. The Trust's constitution was revised in 2002 in accordance with the principles in "Modernising Trust Ports – A Guide to Good Governance" (DETR January 2000 – updated July 2009).

Closing date for applications 4th July 2010.

If you think you may have the skills and experience to act as a Commissioner and want to contribute to running Lymington Harbour please phone, fax, email or write for an application form and further information to:
